

The people have spoken, but will the machine listen? If further deregulation of the media is allowed, democracy and access to information will be severely threatened. Look at what The Deregulation of 1996 did to radio and learn the lessons it has taught. Do not relax the ownership caps, REPEAL the Telecommunications Act of 1996.